

Reflection Journal Rubric

How your daily reflection journal is graded

	Missing · 0%	Emerging · 55%	Approaching · 65%	Developing · 85%	Refining · 100%
Question 1 · What did you learn today? Name what you learned and describe it clearly	Nothing submitted. P. 1	Names a topic but adds no description. P. 1	Names a real idea, describes it too generally. P. 2	Names a specific idea and describes it in own words. P. 3	Explains with a detail or example anyone can follow. P. 4
Question 2 · How did you learn it? Explain what activity helped you learn	Nothing submitted. P. 5	Repeats the answer without naming how it was learned. P. 5	Names an activity but not how it helped. P. 6	Names an activity and connects it to understanding. P. 7	Explains why that way of learning worked. P. 8
Question 3 · What is still unclear, or what are you curious about? Name what is unclear and why it matters	Nothing submitted. P. 9	Says "nothing" or "I don't know" with no idea. P. 9	Names a real question but not why it matters. P. 10	Names a specific question and says why it matters. P. 11	Explains why it matters and proposes a next step. P. 12
SEE THE RUBRIC PDF FOR FULL DETAILS AND EXAMPLES IN EACH BOX

Missing · 0%
Nothing was submitted.

Emerging · 55%
Something was submitted, but the skill is just starting.

Approaching · 65%
The skill is partly there, with important pieces missing.

Developing · 85%
The skill is mostly there, with a small gap left.

Refining · 100%
The skill is clearly there, and practice keeps it strong.