

Reflection Journal Rubric

How your daily reflection journal is graded

Your weakest day sets each skill's grade. Absent? Write the absence note and that day is excused. Goal: Developing on all three skills.

	Missing · 0%	Emerging · 55%	Approaching · 65%	Developing · 85%	Refining · 100%
Question 1 · What did you learn today? Name what you learned and describe it clearly	Nothing submitted. P. 2	Names a topic but adds no description. P. 2	Names a real idea, describes it too generally. P. 3	Names a specific idea and describes it in own words. P. 4	Explains with a detail or example anyone can follow. P. 5
Question 2 · How did you learn it? Explain what activity helped you learn	Nothing submitted. P. 6	Repeats the answer without naming how it was learned. P. 6	Names an activity but not how it helped. P. 7	Names an activity and connects it to understanding. P. 8	Explains why that way of learning worked. P. 9
Question 3 · What is still unclear, or what are you curious about? Name what is unclear and why it matters	Nothing submitted. P. 10	Says "nothing" or "I don't know" with no idea. P. 10	Names a real question but not why it matters. P. 11	Names a specific question and says why it matters. P. 12	Explains why it matters and proposes a next step. P. 13
SEE THE RUBRIC PDF FOR FULL DETAILS AND EXAMPLES IN EACH BOX

Missing · 0%
Nothing was submitted.

Emerging · 55%
Something was submitted, but the skill is just starting.

Approaching · 65%
The skill is partly there, with important pieces missing.

Developing · 85%
The skill is mostly there, with a small gap left.

Refining · 100%
The skill is clearly there, and practice keeps it strong.